Queen Bees Defuse V-Hawks

Facing a team that had won nine out of their last ten matches, the Queen Bees neutralized Viterbo's big playmakers, Andrea Hughes and Chelsea Muckenhirn. A week ago, Hughes set Viterbo's all-time record in blocks (405) and Muckenhirn set the mark for games played (455).

The Queen Bees are on a winning streak of their own with victories in eleven out of their last twelve matches. Last night, they beat the V-Hawks in three straight matches, 32-30, 30-25, and 30-22.

SAU was anchored by Allison Huss with 12 kills and Lauren Aderman with 21 assists. Chelsea Muckenhirn led the V-hawks with 9 kills and Micaela Bjerke added a game-high 23 assists.

The win put the Queen Bees in sole possession of first place in the Midwest Classic Conference. Having already defeated two of the the 3-1 teams in the conference, the Queen Bees will be eyeing the schedule for their home date October 25th with 3-1 Mount Mercy.

There are no breaks for the Queen Bees as they host the Trinity Christian Trolls in their homecoming match-up tonight.

Unlike the Bees, the Trolls have hit a cold streak losing sixteen of their last seventeen matches. Their only win during the slide came against Grace College, 30-25, 25-20, 22-30, 30-27, 15-13 on September 29th. Before that victory, Trinity Christian had not won since they defeated Siena Heights in the Indiana Wesleyan Tournament on September 8th.

After tonight's game, the Trolls head to Clinton for the Ashford University Tournament on Saturday. They play Ashford at noon and MidAmericana Nazarene at 2:00 p.m. The Queen Bees will hit the road to William Penn for a conference match-up at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday.
